

Protection Benefit Sheet

Mortgage Repayment Cover

1. Introduction

You must read this Protection Benefit Sheet, the Policy Schedule and the Partners Life Policy Document together as one (1) document. All benefits and options provided under this Protection Benefit Sheet apply only during the Cover Term, whilst this Mortgage Repayment Cover remains current, has not ceased and has not been cancelled for any reason.

The words shown in bold in this Protection Benefit Sheet have the meaning described in Clause 11 (Definitions) of the Partners Life Policy Document.

2. Life Assured and Sum Insured

The lives assured for this Mortgage Repayment Cover, the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum(s) Insured and the options that apply to those lives assured are detailed in the Policy Schedule.

2.1 Justification of the Sum Insured

Where the life assured's Mortgage Repayment Cover applied for is based on the life assured's Income the following applies.

If Financials Provided is shown as Yes on the Policy Schedule for a life assured Partners Life has accepted the financial evidence provided as justification of the life assured's Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured, and no further financial evidence will be required at any time in respect of that Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured.

If Financials Provided is shown as No on the Policy Schedule for a life assured then you have not provided financial evidence prior to the Commencement Date. You have the choice to subsequently provide Partners Life with financial evidence which justifies this Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured to Partners Life's satisfaction at any time prior to a claim event occurring. If you do so then no further financial evidence will subsequently be required at any time in respect of that Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured.

If no financial evidence has been provided which justifies this Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured to Partners Life's satisfaction at any time prior to the date of a claim event, then financial evidence will be required before any claim can be assessed, alternatively a claim may be assessed based on any mortgage repayments as calculated monthly, which the life assured is responsible for and can provide evidence of.

This means that while choosing not to supply financial evidence in support of the life assured's disclosed income prior to the date of a claim event can save you time, you risk being paid a reduced Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured at claim time if you are then unable to provide financial evidence that justifies the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured to Partners Life's satisfaction.

In determining whether financial evidence justifies the life assured's Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured, Partners Life will consider financial evidence from the best twelve (12) consecutive month period you can provide for the period commencing twenty-four (24) months immediately prior to the Commencement Date and ending at the date of the claim event. In other words, even if the available financial evidence at application date would not have supported the disclosures made in respect of the life assured's Income, but evidence can be provided of a twelve (12) consecutive month period prior to the date of the claim event which does justify the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured to Partners Life's satisfaction, then no reduction in Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured will occur.

As soon as Partners Life has received financial evidence that justifies the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured to its satisfaction, no further justification of that life assured's Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured will ever be required.

If you cannot provide financial evidence that justifies the life assured's Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured by the time of a claim event, the Sum Insured will be adjusted to the highest Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured that Partners Life would have allowed based on the financial evidence that is made available to Partners Life.

This adjusted Sum Insured is limited to the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured for which the Protection Premium has been paid and will apply to any claims under this Mortgage Repayment Cover. Partners Life will not refund premiums if the Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured is adjusted in this way at the time of claim.

For the purposes of this Clause 2.1 Justification of Sum Insured, the Sum Insured that requires justification will be the actual Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured at the date the justification occurs reduced by any non-underwritten components of that Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured which have occurred over time, such as inflation adjustments. Financial evidence may include for example pay-slips, company accounts, or tax returns.

And the life assured must also be:

- Under the ongoing care of an appropriate Specialist or Medical Doctor; and
- Complying with the advice and treatment recommended by an appropriate Specialist or Medical Doctor who is acceptable to Partners Life.

The diagnosis of partial disability must be made by an appropriate Specialist or Medical Doctor and must confirm, in Partners Life's opinion, that the life assured meets the definition of partially disabled.

Occupation Class 5

The life assured is totally disabled as detailed in Clause 3.1.2 (Totally Disabled or Total Disability Means). That means there is no partial disability benefit available for this occupation class.

3.4 How the Mortgage Repayment Cover Benefit will be Paid

The total and partial disability benefits will be payable monthly in advance until;

- The life assured is no longer totally disabled or partially disabled; or
- The end of the Payment Term is reached; or
- The end of the Cover Term is reached, whichever is the earlier.

3.5 Amount of Total Disability Benefit

The amount of Total Disability Benefit payable is dependent on the life assured's occupation class which is explained in Clause 3.3 (Occupation Classes).

Occupation Classes 1-4

The Total Disability Benefit payable will be the monthly Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured.

Where the period of total disability is expected to end before the end of the next full month, the Total Disability Benefit payable for that month will be one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the Total Disability Benefit for each day of the month up to the day the total disability is expected to end.

Where the period of total disability is expected to end before the end of the next full month, the Total Disability Benefit payable for that month will be one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the Total Disability Benefit for each day of the month up to the day the total disability is expected to end.

3.6 Amount of Partial Disability Benefit

The amount of Partial Disability Benefit payable is dependent on the life assured's occupation class which is explained in Clause 3.3 (Occupation Classes).

Occupation Classes 1-4

The Partial Disability Benefit payable will be the monthly Mortgage Repayment Cover Sum Insured (A) multiplied either by:

- Pre-disability Income (B) less the Income continuing to be received post-disability (C) divided by Pre-disability Income (B); or
- Normal working hours (D) less the working hours post-disability (E) divided by normal working hours (D); whichever gives the higher result.

In other words the Partial Disability Benefit payable would be the greater of:

- $A \times ((B-C)/B)$; or
- $A \times ((D-E)/D)$.

Where the period of partial disability is expected to end before the end of the next full month, the Partial Disability Benefit payable for that month will be one-thirtieth (1/30th) of the Partial Disability Benefit for each day of the month up to the day the partial disability is expected to end.

- Must be in Occupation Classes 1-4; and
- Must have been working for Income for at least twenty-eight (28) hours per week immediately prior to the commencement of the dependent relative's total disability.

Partners Life requires:

- Details of any Income being received.

Partners Life reserves the right to require the life assured to undergo a medical examination or other reasonable tests to confirm the extent of their disability.

Depending on the individual circumstances surrounding each claim, and at Partners Life's sole discretion, Partners Life may also request any other additional claim proof that it determines is necessary to complete its assessment of the claim.
